

Wildlife Habitats of California

Source: Dr. Frank Davis, GAP Analysis Program, Department of Geography, University of California, Santa Barbara. 1998. Minimum mapping unit for upland habitat types is 250 acres, with a mean polygon size of 4, 282 acres.

Habitat types are described in: A Guide to Wildlife Habitats of California, K.E. Mayer and W.F. Laudenslayer, eds. 1988. California Department of Fish and Game.

